Ford Dilemma

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the Ford case, the Nixon administration finds itself suddenly trapped in a modern dilemma: How to protect the environment while encouraging a growing economy providing more jobs?

The situation may force a difficult administration decision on whether Ford must delay production for two to four months this year because of mistakes made in testing engines for air pollution.

The Environmental Protection Agency announced Monday that Ford may have to delay production of 1973 models because the EPA cannot certify the engines until the test are run again.

If Ford must shut down for several months, officials said, the impact on the nation's economy would be extensive and would come at a crucial time for President Nixon's economic strategy.

Potentially 185,000 jobs are affected. If all these were thrown out of work, the unemployment rate might get worse, the economy would lose some of its zip, and the administration's 1972 economic goals might be endangered.

But these are the worst of consequences, administration economic officials said, implying that some solution may come either through action by Congress, the administration, or the company itself.

Things have been going well for the administration recently on the economic front, with production expanding vigorously, pointing to a future decline in the jobless rate. And the rate of inflation has begun to slow.

At the end of 1970, the General Motors strike caused a sharp decline in the economy and led to that year being officially labeled a recession.

William D. Ruckelshaus, EPA administrator, said there is a possibility Ford could send uncertified cars to dealers with the understanding that if any of them needed adjustments, changes could be performed in the field.

But Congress might have to pass emergency legislation to give the administration authority to do that, he said.

Sign Accords In Moscow

Reach First Agreements

MOSCOW (AP) — President Nixon and Soviet leaders reached their first modest agreements of the Moscow summit Tuesday and moved on with talks ranging over such issues as arms limitations and Vietnam.

The President had private sessions with Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev before and after ceremonies for the signing of bilateral agreements on environmental protection and health.

They were the second and third sessions Nixon has had with Brezhnev since he became on Monday the first American president to set foot in Moscow.

Informants said the evening session focused almost exclusively on the proposed strategic arms limitation agreement which Nixon hopes to sign while in Moscow. Work on the agreement is being done in U.S.-Soviet talks at Helsinki, Finland. Sources there said Tuesday some remaining problems need to be worked out.

Nixon and Brezhnev were joined in the evening session by White House adviser Henry A. Kissinger and Kremlin aide Andrei M. Aleksander-Agentov. Nixon dined in his suite at the Kremlin Grand Palace after the meeting, which lasted nearly three hours until 10 p.m.

In the gilded splendor of a vaulted Kremlin hall, Nixon signed with President Nikolai V. Podgorny an agreement pledging a cooperative effort on water and air pollution.

This was followed by the signing by Secretary of State William P. Rogers and the Soviet health minister of an agreement for joint efforts in conquering heart ailments, cancer and other diseases.

The five-year agreement, which established U.S.-Soviet coordinating committees to meet regularly, had essentially been wrapped up before Nixon arrived here.

Sources indicated another agreement for a cooperative space exploration program also was ready for signing, aiming for a joint orbital flight in 1975.

The atmosphere of the talks was described as businesslike but cordial. There was no concrete indication of progress on the key issues of Vietnam, the strategic arms limitation accord and trade. But it was understood Nixon and Brezhnev had moved into these areas in a two-hour session before the signing ceremonies and another meeting afterward.

The summit talks, which follow by three months Nixon's mission to Peking, continue on Wednesday after Nixon lays a wreath at the tomb of Russia's unknown soldier.

Bremer Indictment

BALTIMORE (AP) — Arthur Herman Bremer was indicted Tuesday by federal and state grand juries on assault charges stemming from the shooting of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and three other persons at a political rally May 15.

The 31-year-old Bremer, being held at the Baltimore County Jail in suburban Towson, is scheduled to appear for federal arraignment at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

The four-count federal indictment charges Bremer with violating federal civil rights and firearms statutes.

The state indictment charges Bremer with carrying a dangerous weapon, a 12-caliber revolver, to violate a federal presidential protection statute and to assault Nicholas J. Zarvos, a Secret Service agent guarding Wallace.

The federal indictment also charges Bremer with bringing the gun from Wisconsin to Maryland and with using the weapon to commit a felony.

Each of the first three counts carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine; the fourth count bears a maximum penalty of 10 years in jail.

The federal indictment was returned about two hours after a grand jury in Prince Georges

County—where the shootings occurred—handed down four identical six-count indictments carrying potentially more serious penalties.

The state charges accuse Bremer with two common law offenses, attempted murder and assault and battery; two felonies, assault with intent to murder and assault with intent to maim; and two violations of Maryland's recently enacted handgun control law.

The common law crimes carry no fixed penalties and can result, upon conviction, in death in the gas chamber, according to Arthur Marshall, the state attorney who made the presentation to the jury in Upper Marlboro.

Marshall said, however, that the death penalty has never been imposed in a case where the victim survived.

Listed in the state indictments as victims were Wallace; Zarvos, Capt. E.C. Dothard, an Alabama state trooper accompanying Wallace; and Dora Thompson, a campaign worker from Alabama.

Zarvos, the only person remaining hospitalized besides Wallace, 52, was reported resting comfortably at Leland Memorial Hospital in Riverdale, Md., where he underwent surgery for a throat wound.

Medical Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government Tuesday designated 122 urban and rural areas, including the entire state of Alaska, as medical poverty pockets eligible for low-cost treatment by federal doctors, nurses and dentists.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare said it will assign a total of 162 physicians, 72 nurses and 44 other health professionals to the selected areas in 39 states and the District of Columbia in July, after further assessment of local needs.

Fees will be charged on the basis of ability to pay. Treatment will be free to many of the patients who will include poor blacks, Chicanos, American Indians and Appalachian families. Since the personnel is salaried, any fees connected will go to the government.

Dr. H. McDonald Rimple,

newly named director of the National Health Service Corps, said about 5,000 communities in the nation lack health-care services because of several factors, primarily low incomes and high crime rates.

By the end of last year nearly 600 communities had applied for help under the 1970 Emergency Health Personnel Act, funded with $15 million this fiscal year and an identical amount requested next year.

Earlier this year HEW assigned 68 federal health professionals to 15 city slums and remote rural areas in 13 states as the first phase of the program.

"In being responsive to these needs," Rimple said, "the National Health Service Corps is not attempting to deal with the problem of the overall shortage of health personnel, but rather to alleviate some of the more acute problems."

War Resistance Supported By United Presbyterians

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — United Presbyterians recommended stepped-up tactics Tuesday for resisting the Vietnam war, including support for nonviolent acts of civil disobedience.

This backing of defiance was one of the hardest stands yet taken against the war by an entire, major denomination, and it aroused the keenest reservations at the church's governing assembly.

"The church has not yet exhausted all remedies within the law," said Frank Bowron, a Casper, Wyo., attorney who led opposition to the condoning of such acts as draft resistance and refusing payment of certain federal taxes.

Bowron and some other delegates voiced concern that the new stand could deepen divisions in the church and cause some members to withhold contributions. Others doubted any strains over the matter.

Representatives of the 3.1-million-member denomination registered their all-out opposition to the war, calling it wantonly destructive and based on deception and abuse of presidential powers.

By a vote of 401 to 235, they approved the 2,000-word document calling for "immediate cessation" of all American air, naval and ground action, and "speedy withdrawal" of military forces from the entire area, subject only to a pledge of release of U.S. prisoners.

The church recommended a sequence of actions to try to get the war stopped, including:

—An escalation of conscientious moral protest and effective action, including fasting and "symbolic witness" in public places.

—"Prayerful support" to those who undertake conscientious, peaceful acts of civil disobedience "with a readiness to accept the legal consequences," authorizing church support for them.

—Appeals to members of Congress to withdraw appropriations for American military operations "in, over or near the Indochina peninsula."

—Insistence that Congress immediately adopt legislation restricting presidential authority to commit U.S. military forces without Congress' express consent.

Should such steps fail, the denomination further urged:

—That Presbyterians examine records of legislators and positions of candidates, seeking election of those in both parties committed to ending the war, and contributing financially to their campaigns.

—That the constitutionality of American involvement in Indochina be challenged through the courts.

Widen Bomb Targets In North Viet Theater

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. jets have heavily damaged a power station near Hanoi and destroyed six bridges on the rail line to China in three days of intensive air strikes on North Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced Tuesday.

On the ground in the South, government forces ran into stiff opposition in their second attempt to reopen a key highway in the central highlands.

The Pentagon in Washington indicated the attack on the power station which supplies electricity to military installations around the North Vietnamese capital signaled a widening of bombing targets in the North. U.S. planes "will be hitting some of the other targets such as power plants and some of the industrial facilities" which support the enemy's war effort, said Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedman.

Previous strikes have concentrated on petroleum storage depots and transportation facilities.

Radio Hanoi claimed U.S. warplanes attacked in five

North Vietnamese provinces Tuesday and eight were shot down by "the local air defense and the people's air force in well coordinated actions."

The U.S. Command reported Navy and Air Force fighter-bombers flew more than 1,000 strikes in the North between Sunday and Tuesday.

The top North Vietnamese official in Paris scoffed at U.S. efforts to cut off arms shipments by mining port entrances and said the mines are being cleared.

"We have a very long seacoast and the mining cannot prevent relations we are having with foreign countries," said Le Duc Tho, an envoy to the peace talks.

The outgoing commander of the U.S. 7th Fleet termed the mining "very effective," however, and said no vessel has gone through the mine fields in any direction.

Vice Adm. William P. Mack told newsmen Monday aboard the fleet flagship off Vietnam he knew of no attempts to sweep the mines.

In South Vietnam's central highlands, a South Vietnamese task force trying for the second time in three weeks to reopen Highway 14 linking Kontum and Pleiku ran into enemy opposition.

Most of the action in the three-day-old operation centered around the mountain of Chu Pao, about nine miles south of virtually surrounded Kontum.

Despite ruthless pounding by allied air strikes, artillery and tanks, North Vietnamese troops hiding in mountainside tunnels continued to hit government troops with heavy fire.

On the southern front, field reports said North Vietnamese infantrymen and tanks smashed into the rubble that six weeks ago was An Loc, the provincial capital 60 miles north of Saigon, and were encircled by South Vietnamese forces still entrenched in the battered town.

A government relief column stalled within sight of the town also was reported under attack, and reports said Highway 13 remained cut behind advance units of the relief force.

National PTA Backs Busing

NEW YORK (AP) — The National PTA voted by a narrow margin Tuesday night to support busing to achieve school integration and defeated an anti-busing amendment, a spokesman for the National Parents' Teachers Association said.

In a 302 to 236 vote at its 76th annual convention, the National PTA resolved to "take immediate action to search for solutions that could by rational means reduce racial isolation through transportation."

The resolution was introduced by Kenneth Fleischer of Kinderhook, N.Y., one of 1,000 delegates attending the four-day convention that concludes Wednesday, the spokesman said.

The PTA also voted to "continue to retain its strong commitment to, and rational perspective toward, integration and equality of educational opportunities for all children" and "to develop other viable methods for providing quality education for all children and youth," he said.

In a 342-31 vote, the PTA defeated a resolution to "make every possible effort to insure that no school children shall be transported across municipal or school district boundaries in order to achieve racial segregation or racial integration."

McGovern Captures Tuesday Primaries

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. George McGovern won the Rhode Island Democratic presidential primary Tuesday night, outdistancing Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in an election that drew a skimpy turnout. McGovern bid in Oregon to make it a transcontinental double victory.

The South Dakota senator hoped in those two contests to gain momentum for the pivotal California primary two weeks away.

Humphrey made one brief campaign stop in Rhode Island, but put his emphasis and effort into California.

With the Rhode Island victory, McGovern added 22 presidential nominating votes to the national lead he already held.

With 53 per cent of the Rhode Island precincts reporting, this was the situation:

McGovern 7,202 or 44 per cent.

Humphrey 3,607 or 22 per cent.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine 2,701 or 16 per cent.

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama 2,504 or 15 per cent.

Four other entries drew scattered support.

Wallace, partially paralyzed in an assassination attempt eight days ago, nonetheless showed up on Rhode Island television screens with a last-minute array of commercials taped before the shooting.

Muskie has dropped from the active primary campaign, but he paid a quick visit to Providence to remind Democrats that he is still a candidate if not a campaigner.

McGovern won without a personal campaign, relying on his organization and his volunteers to turn out the votes that won.

President Nixon swept to a towering victory in the Republican primary over his standard

More Irish Seek End To Violence

BELFAST (AP) — Irish Republican Army sympathizers broke up a peace rally Tuesday night in Londonderry as demands mounted for an end to the violence of the IRA guerrillas.

In Belfast, a sniper killed a British soldier and a big bomb blasted the city's center, causing widespread destruction. The soldier, slain while patrolling a street, was the 35th person to die in 33 months of bloody turmoil in the British province.

The meeting of 3,000 expressed overwhelming support for a truce proposal made by a Catholic priest, the Rev. Martin Rooney. It unanimously adopted a resolution condemning violence and calling for an end to internment without trial of suspected IRA members.

The IRA sympathizers shouted down speakers. Scuffles broke out in the audience, and the meeting stopped.

The outlawed IRA has conducted a campaign of shooting and bombing aimed at forcing the British out of Protestant-dominated Northern Ireland and uniting the province with the predominantly Catholic Irish republic.

The Belfast bomb explosion injured two persons, a civilian and a policeman. An estimated 100 pounds of gelignite explosive was planted in a delivery van parked in an archway only yards from City Hall. Shop fronts were blown in within a radius of 100 yards. The provincial tax office and the electric company's offices were wrecked.

An anonymous caller alerted the telephone company that the bomb was going off in 15 minutes. This gave police time to clear the area.

The blast climaxed a day of similar bomb explosions as the IRA stepped up its campaign to oust the British from Ulster.

But in Londonderry, Roman Catholic women, a priest, civil rights leaders and thousands of mourners at a funeral demanded an end to IRA violence.

The shift in opinion against the outlawed organization from its own supporters further widened the rift between the two wings of the IRA—Provisional and Official.

In Londonderry, the Catholic women won a promise from the official wing of the IRA to scale down its attacks.

It came when about 200 angry women stormed the IRA's headquarters in the IRA-ruled Catholic Bogside area known as Free Derry. On Monday, after the Official IRA killed an Irish-born British soldier, home on leave in the district, The Officials, claiming the 19-year-old soldier was spy.

The 'Real' Nixon, A Remote Analysis

Remember back during the 1964 election campaign when a bunch of psychiatrists did a neat hatchet job on Barry Goldwater?

The experts replied to a questionnaire sent out by one of that era's shorter-lived and less respected magazines, making it the most spectacular case of long-distance psychoanalysis since Sigmund Freud explained the hidden meaning of Leonardo Da Vinci's babyhood dreams at four centuries removed.

It didn't take a degree to know that Barry was close to the edge. Why, he advocated a massive infusion of U.S. troops into Vietnam, bombing, defoliation. Fortunately, the American people rejected that nut and elected a man who did not suffer from such delusions of grandeur.

Now, just in time for the 1972 election, someone has performed a similar service in the case of one Richard M. Nixon.

Bruce Mazlish, professor of history at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, with training in psychoanalysis, has founded a new discipline he calls "psychohistory," a fusion of psychoanalysis and history. First fruit of this fusion is his book, "In Search of Nixon," subtitled "A Psychohistorical Inquiry."

While the history may be dubious, there is no doubt about the psycho part.

"Nixon," Mazlish informs us, "is a man torn between his mother's dislike of warfare and his father's sharp competitiveness; thus he is extremely ambivalent about his aggressive impulses and tends to deal with them by projection onto others."

Right now, of course, he's projecting onto the North Vietnamese, who were good enough to stage an invasion of South Vietnam and thus offer him a pretext.

Furthermore, says Mazlish, "He (still speaking of you-know-who) is wracked by indecision and by the question of his own courage, especially in a crisis. He has had a serious problem with death wishes..."

In regard to the latter, Mazlish suggests that Nixon's "need for crisis" may partially be "motivated by the need to confront his death fears, repeatedly and constantly."

This is but a sampling from a book that is all the more remarkable for having been written by an author who has never met his subject.

Forget that Richard Nixon did not start the Vietnam war. Forget that in foreign affairs, except for Vietnam, his overall record in the past four years has been one of removing the causes of the crises that have periodically wracked the world for more than two decades.

Forget the Okinawa treaty with Japan, the SALT disarmament talks with Russia, the President's historic visit to China.

With candidate Nixon neatly disposed of, now all the voters have to do is find a man who doesn't have this "need for crisis" and we can all sit back and enjoy four years of national tranquility undisturbed by the North Vietnamese, the Russians, the Chinese, the cost of beef, the corn blight, the San Andreas Fault or the Fates.

The Teacher Is There To Teach

"Little children need the calm and security which only an orderly and quiet atmosphere can give. They need also the protective assurance of a teacher who through a benevolent authority will tell them what he expects them to do and will help them to carry out his instructions in an ordered environment. He is there to teach them, not to watch them pretending to teach themselves."

These words were not uttered by someone back in the educational Dark Ages of the 19th century. They were written by Stuart Froome in his 1970 book, "Why Tommy Isn't Learning."

Froome is headmaster of St. Jude's Church of England Junior School in Surrey, England, where, reports the bulletin of the Washington-based Council for Basic Education, parents all but queue up to get their children admitted.

Poor, backward, England! American parents can be thankful that this alien philosophy has been uprooted from our land and that the forces of permissiveness and progressivism are ever vigilant against any suggestion that a child is not his own best judge of what and how he should learn.

Schools as places of calm and security and order and quiet. Teachers as benevolent authorities. Indeed, teachers whose main function is to teach.

Indeed, indeed.

Major Policy Goals Behind Russ Desire For Talks

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
Only two weeks ago the chances that the Kremlin would countenance a summit meeting with President Nixon at this time were, in the view of many, worth less than a plugged kopek. Now the summit has begun on schedule. Why?

Behind the apparent eagerness of General Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev and his colleagues in the Soviet Communist party leadership to meet this week with the President are a number of major Soviet policy goals.

It had seemed on May 8 that Nixon's decision to mine North Vietnamese ports to slow Soviet supplies would wash out the summit. It didn't. Although the Russians vow to continue supplying billions of rubles worth of hardware to Hanoi, the Vietnam situation is getting in the way of some major Soviet goals.

The Kremlin eye has long been intently fixed on Europe. Its drive for a security conference goes back many years and recently has had the highest priority. Moscow wants Europe to agree to the idea of "renunciation of force" in the same pattern as the West German-Soviet treaty just ratified in Bonn.

What else do the Russians want from the summit?

They want expanded economic and trade ties with the West and the United States and access to Western technology for application to the Soviet consumer economy. The Soviet system is more than 50 years old now and its domestic economy still suffers from comparison with Western standards. The Politburo long has been feeling the pressure of popular impatience.

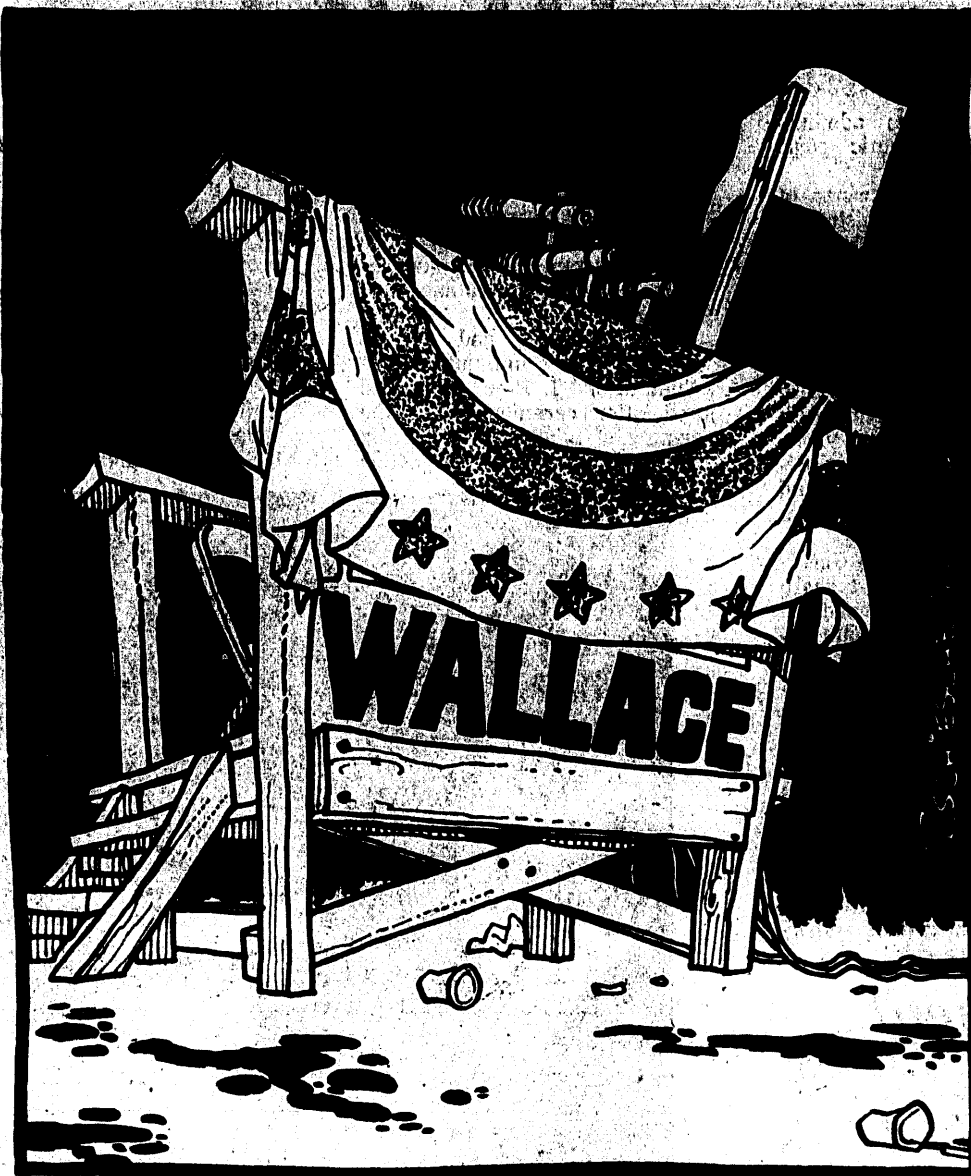

The Soviet economy could make effective use of some of the enormous investment in superweapons and defense. Some sort of agreement on limitation of missiles would be attractive to Brezhnev, as it would to Nixon. There has been some expectation that a beginning, at least, emanating from the strategic arms limitation talks may be ready to memorialize this summit.

China figures largely in Soviet reasoning on the need for this summit, and not only because Moscow might want to balance the Nixon visit to Peking.

Soviet fear of China is real. Some inspired leaks in Moscow these days suggest that the Nixon moves in Vietnam will force closer Red Chinese-Soviet cooperation. But there has been no sign that the basic Moscow-Peking differences were being patched up.

There's nothing really new about Brezhnev's conduct of foreign policy. It is more or less classic for the Kremlin, which has always sought to build a peace image for itself while pursuing long-range goals by political means.

With More Delegates To Come ...

Wallace At High-Water Mark

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
SEATTLE, Wash. (NEA) — Not sympathy for a stricken man but the hard fact of his season-long performance compels attention right now for the remarkable 1972 political achievements of Gov. George Wallace of Alabama.

His stunning double triumph in the Michigan and Maryland primaries provides the climax of his surprising year. He has won, at this point, six of the 16 primaries thus far held.

That gives Wallace twice as many primary victories as Sen. George McGovern, the present leader in committed convention delegates, and two more than Sen. Hubert Humphrey, considered McGovern's chief rival for the 1972 nomination.

Moreover, Wallace's victories in Michigan and Maryland were so thorough that he seemed to have picked up more than 110 delegates and to have boosted his overall total to the range of 325—second only to McGovern.

To go further, Wallace has finished second in three other primaries where there was multicandidate competition—Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Indiana. And he was Humphrey's only rival in West Virginia.

Even if he had not been shot down and thus evidently eliminated as an active campaigner for the remainder of the nominating period, this moment would have been a "break point" for him. Except possibly for a minor write-in effort in California's June 6 primary, in none of the remaining seven tests was Wallace expected to make a bid.

But he was planning to press hard for more delegates in some southern and border states, and my country-wide canvassing of the outlook suggests he will have successes in this strategy even as he lies immobilized in his hospital bed.

His strength is rising in Texas, where a huge block of 10 delegates will be chosen in June. He also is making inroads in Georgia, Louisiana and South Carolina, though it is not yet clear how much of his support in those places will translate into substantial numbers of delegates.

How Wallace in his present condition can use his astonishing delegate strength in the Miami Beach convention in July is also unsettled. Probably he was going to play it by ear anyway. The one sure thing was that he would try, with all his evident political skills, to exert maximum influence and keep attention riveted upon him at the convention.

The Democratic party may be a long time getting over the fact that Wallace won with 51 per cent of the vote in Michigan, supposedly a progressive, issue-oriented state where men backed by big labor, as was Humphrey, can be expected to do well.

While Wallace deserves the bright light at this moment, it should not be overlooked that Humphrey ran a dismal third in Michigan with just 16 per cent of the vote, and that his respectable second-place 27 per cent in Maryland gained him six of that state's 53 delegates.

On the other hand, McGovern's healthy second in Michigan, with a probable bag of 38 delegates, sets him up well for the next round of primaries in crucial California (371 votes) and New York (278). His stock on the big board is rising almost daily.

In the long view it is still McGovern vs. Humphrey. But in the short range, May 16 was George Wallace day and, tragically hurt, he deserves the chance to savor the richness of his victories.

"Am I In Trouble" Test

Dear Ann Landers: Occasionally you print a Do-It-Yourself Test. I ran into a good one last week. A friend sent it. I was resentful at first, but now I realize he was trying to tell me something. Please print it.

The "Am I In Trouble" Test

1. Alcohol is an addictive drug.—True or False

2. As few as two drinks a day can lead to alcoholism.—True or False

3. The attitude of a drinker is as important as the amount he drinks.—True or False

4. Some people can handle a quart a day and live a normal life.—True or False

5. Moderate drinking will eventually cause physical damage.—True or False

6. Most older people should cut back on alcohol.—True or False

7. Women can't hold their liquor as well as men.—True or False

8. Vodka and gin do not produce hangovers.—True or False

9. Drinking on an empty stomach makes you drunker.—True or False

10. A person who drinks only wine or beer will not become an alcoholic.—True or False

11. A person who is drunk behaves more like his real self.—True or False

12. The ideal arrangement for an alcoholic is to set his limit at one or two drinks rather than try for total abstinence. He will then feel as if he is in control of himself and less deprived.—True or False

The answers are as follows:

1. True. Alcohol is an addictive drug.

2. True. For some people. But the real question is not how much a person drinks, but how much he depends on it.

3. True. Too many people fail to recognize the importance of their attitude toward drinking. This is what separates the social drinker from the alcoholic.

When drinking becomes part of a person's life style, he is in trouble.

4. False. Heavy drinkers, no matter how normal they seem, are not normal. Some people can hold a great deal of alcohol and not show it, but they can't fool their internal organs.

5. False. Moderate drinking will probably cause no damage, even over a lifetime. The problem lies in the interpretation of the word "moderate."

6. True. A heavy drinker who is past 35 won't be able to handle alcohol as well over the next 35 years—if he lasts that long.

7. True. Women generally weigh less than men. The less a person weighs, the more quickly his body is affected by alcohol.

8. False. This is a lot of malarky.

9. True. Food cushions the effects of alcohol by slowing down the rate at which it is absorbed by the body.

10. False. See statement in response to Number 8.

11. False. Alcohol releases the inhibitions and exposes the unguarded, primitive man. This does not mean it is his "real" self, but rather his uncivilized, crude self.

12. False. An alcoholic should not have even one drop of alcohol.—Daily Reader

Dear Reader: In my opinion the most valuable part of the test is the last sentence in the response to the third question. It's worth going back to and reading again.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

"Shooting stars" are actually meteoroids which vaporize by the heat of friction when they pass through the earth's atmosphere and are seen as meteors. The World Almanac says. While most of them are consumed, a few fall to earth as fused metal or stone and are called meteorites. Meteoroids are thought to be fragments from comets or the asteroid belt.

Thoughts

"The law and the prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and every one enters it violently. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one dot of the law to become void."—Luke 16: 16, 17.

The law, in its majestic equality, forbids the rich as well as the poor to sleep under bridges, to beg in the streets, and to steal bread.—Anatole France, French novelist.

pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Charles Williams. Mrs. Harold Jacobs led in the club collect. Roll call was answered by 16 members.

One guest, Mrs. Warren Smith was welcomed as a new member of the club. Minutes of the April meeting were read by acting secretary Mrs. Elfred Detmer. Treasurer Mrs. Edwin Lakamp gave her monthly report.

Mrs. Wayne Bracewell reported the cancer drive has been successfully completed. Club members assisting with the drive included Mrs. Bracewell, Mrs. Roy Schone, Mrs. Harlan Postlewait, Mrs. Edwin Lakamp, Mrs. Clarence Lakamp, Mrs. Ralph Wilder, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. John Binkley, Mrs. Elfred Detmer, Mrs. Robert Brockhouse and Mrs. Harlan Hamilton.

The 1972-73 program committee gave a tentative report. Newly elected officers were installed by retiring president Mrs. Shepard. Mrs. Shepard was presented an appreciation gift from the club.

The program was opened by the singing of America, the Beautiful led by Mrs. Charles Williams. Mrs. Wayne Bracewell, program chairman, then introduced Mrs. Donald Houston, who gave an interesting and informative talk, Birds I Enjoy. She told of birds that inhabit her lawn and garden area and of the order of their arrival in early spring, and habits of nesting and feeding. She reviewed those birds which stay in the area all winter and how we may enjoy them to the fullest by putting out feeders or plantings which have winter berries to attract them.

The meeting closed with the club prayer, led by Mrs. John Binkley. The hostesses served lovely refreshments from a beautiful tea table, and a social hour followed.

At Roodhouse; Loss $30,000

ROODHOUSE — The House of Plenty restaurant and lounge, located on route 287 in Roodhouse, was gutted by fire Monday evening, sustaining an estimated $30,000 in damages.

Owner and operator Jay Rackley said that he closed his establishment for the evening about 10 p.m. Monday. At about 10:50 a passing motorist noticed flames leaping from the one-story, wood-frame construction and notified the Roodhouse Volunteer Fire Department.

Volunteer firemen arrived at the scene and fought the blaze for almost four hours before extinguishing it. Volunteer Fire Chief Kenneth Jackson said the fire had apparently begun in the kitchen, but the cause was as yet undetermined.

The building and contents, covered by insurance, were considered a total loss.

Rackley bought the year and a half old business from John Roodhouse, Sr.

Mrs. Schnelten Of Greene Dies; Rites Thursday

CARROLLTON — Mrs. Mary A. (Minnie) Schnelten, 81, of Carrollton died at 8:45 p.m. Monday at Boyd hospital here where she had been a patient for several weeks.

She was born at Meppen, Feb. 23, 1891, daughter of John and Margaret Kiel Inaming. She married Bernard Schnelten on Oct. 23, 1913. He died Sept. 30, 1963.

The deceased was a member of the Carrollton St. John's Catholic church, the CD of A. St. John's Improvement club and the Altar and Rosary Society.

She is survived by one daughter, Sister Mary Margaret of Duluth, Minn., and five sons, George, Frank, Arthur and J.D. of Carrollton, and Robert of Alton.

There are 31 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

One sister, Mrs. Leo Slemmer of Carrollton, also survives.

One daughter, Kathryn Glynn, and two brothers and three sisters preceded in death.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. John's Catholic church with burial to be in St. John's cemetery.

Friends may call at the Memorial Home here after 2 p.m. Wednesday. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m.

4-H FEDERATION MEETS IN MAY

The May meeting of the Morgan county 4-H Federation was at the Extension Center with president Elizabeth Hanback presiding. Pledges to the flags were led by Rose Marie Doyle and Betty Oxley. Roll call, minutes and treasurer's report were heard. A rally report was given by Sara Suttles and Susie Irlam was appointed bicycle safety lane chairman. Day camp was discussed and a committee meeting held May 9. The nominating committee for next year's officers includes Elizabeth Hanback, Bruce Kinnett, Nancy Oliver, Dean Baxter and Sara Suttles.

Public Speaking is July 31 and horse judging June 6. Gary Heusel presented the program. He told different rules and regulations for a good public speech. Members then gave short speeches. A film was then presented on how to give a good demonstration.

It was George Barnard Shaw, who was born to poverty but died wealthy, who said, "I hate the poor and look forward eagerly to their extermination."

Mt. Sterling man and Lombard girl to marry June 10

MT. STERLING — A June wedding date has been set by Miss Bonnie Jean Hayes of Lombard and Ronald E. Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Nichols of Mt. Sterling. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hayes.

The couple will be married Saturday, June 10th, in the First United Methodist church in Lombard.

The bride-elect is a 1969 graduate of Glenbard East High School and now attends Illinois State University at Normal. Her fiancé graduated from Brown County High School and is a senior at Illinois State, majoring in business administration.

SOME CAR BUYERS MAY GET SALES TAX REFUNDS

SPRINGFIELD, (UPI)—Persons who bought cars in Illinois during President Nixon's wage-price freeze would get a partial refund of sales tax under a bill approved by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

On an 18-0 vote Monday, the committee recommended passage of the bill sponsored by Sen. Donald Carpenter, R-East Moline.

The bill would allow the Department of Revenue to refund to some 300,000 eligible car buyers, sales taxes paid on top of a federal excise tax repealed by Congress retroactive to Aug. 16, 1971.

The excise tax had been included in the total price of the cars upon which the sales tax was computed.

The bill includes a $3.7 million appropriation to cover the refunds which, Carpenter said, would average $10 to $12.

Eligible car buyers would be sent an application by the Department on which they would claim the overpayment, Carpenter said.

Pittsfield Post Plans Memorial Rites May 29th

PITTSFIELD — In accordance with patriotic custom, the Pittsfield Community will observe Memorial Day Monday, May 29th. Services will be held at 10:15 a.m. at the Pittsfield West cemetery, under the auspices of Pittsfield Post 152 of the American Legion, as for many years past.

Bands and participating organizations are asked to assemble at the Legion Hall at 9:30 a.m.

All veterans, whether or not members of the Post, are urged to attend and take part in the services. Bands and participating organizations will march from the Legion Hall to the West cemetery. The Pittsfield High School Band and Higbee Junior High Band will furnish the music at the cemetery. The Memorial Prayer will be given by Rev. Robert Dorow, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Pittsfield. The Memorial Address will be given by Rev. Frank Claybourne, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, Pittsfield.

The Legion, V.F.W., World War I Veterans, Legion Auxiliary, V.F.W. Auxiliary and Army Mothers will take part and the Explorer, Boy Scout, Cub Scout, Girl Scout organizations and all veterans, service and fraternal organizations are invited to participate. It is expected that the Scouts will be in uniform. All veterans are asked to bring service organization caps. The public is cordially invited to attend. In the event of rain, services will be held in the Legion Hall.

KAREN ROCKHILL OF ASHLAND GRADUATE NURSE

ASHLAND — Karen Elliott Rockhill, formerly Karen Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Elliott, graduated from the Methodist Hospital of Nursing in Peoria, May 13th.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Elliott and Gail and Mrs. Ethel Spicer, Ashland; Mary Jane Elliott and Danny Burkett of Springfield.

After the graduation, a delicious buffet dinner was enjoyed at Karen's in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rockhill at Washington, Ill.

Karen will be taking her state nursing examination in July in Chicago. She has already started to work at the Proctor hospital in Peoria.

U.S. Jets Shoot Down Four MIGs

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force and Navy fighters escorting bombers on raids against the northeast rail line linking Hanoi with China shot down four Soviet-built MIG interceptors in a dogfight Tuesday deep inside North Vietnam, U.S. military sources said.

The MIGs were downed after they rose from the KEP air base, 35 miles northeast of Hanoi, to challenge the U.S. bombers, the sources said Wednesday.

Radio Hanoi claimed eight U.S. planes were shot down while attacking "many populated areas" in five North Vietnamese provinces. It said four were downed in Ha Bac Province, about 30 miles northeast of Hanoi, but did not specify whether they were downed in the MIG dogfight.

There was no comment from the U.S. Command. U.S. sources who disclosed the MIG kills made no mention of any American plane losses. U.S. Command policy is not to announce American plane losses if search and rescue operations are being conducted for downed pilots.

Sources said two of the MIGs were shot down by Navy F4 Phantom fighters from the 7th Fleet carrier Midway and the others were downed by Air Force fighters. The enemy planes were hit with air-to-air missiles and cannon.

First reports said two of the enemy interceptors were early model MIG17s, one was a MIG19 and the fourth was a late model MIG21.

The kills raised to 31 the number of MIG interceptors reported downed by U.S. fighters this year and to 142 the total for the Indochina war.

McGovern

opposition, Reps. John M. Ashbrook of Ohio and Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California.

With 19 per cent of the precincts counted, it was:

Nixon 550 votes or 90 per cent.

McCloskey 28 votes or 5 per cent.

Ashbrook 11 votes or 2 per cent.

In Oregon, where the polls closed later, the competition was for 34 delegate votes.

Humphrey in effect conceded that one to McGovern and did not campaign there.

McGovern and Rep. Pat Mink of Hawaii were the only active Oregon campaigners.

Other names on the ballot there: Humphrey, Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, and former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota.

The Rhode Island ballot listed McGovern, Humphrey, Wallace, Muskie, Jackson, Mills, McCarthy and Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles.

The Republican ballots in both states matched President Nixon with two Republican congressmen, John M. Ashbrook of Ohio and Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California. Neither campaigned.

Nixon, who was in Moscow, was sure to score two more towering victories in what has become the standard GOP matchup.

In Kentucky, meanwhile, Republican voters chose former Gov. Louis B. Nunn as their nominee for a Senate seat. Walter Huddleston, a state senator, won the Democratic nomination in a primary that drew a sparse turnout.

They will meet in November for the Senate seat of retiring Sen. John Sherman Cooper, who endorsed Nunn.

STATE OF ILLINOIS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT MORGAN COUNTY Case No. 72-391-L

Notice of Sale of Real Estate for Taxes and Notice of Filing Petition for Order to Issue Tax Deed

To: Gussie Dunham, Unknown heirs or devisees of Gussie Dunham, deceased; James N. Dunham; Muriel Dunham Ballard; Mary Dunham Harding; Nellie Dunham Hopper; and Unknown Owners or Parties Interested.

You and each of you are hereby notified that on October 24, 1969, the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Illinois entered a judgment and order of sale (89-63) upon delinquent lands and lots, and fixed the correct amount of tax paid under protest in the County of Morgan and State of Illinois for the year 1968; that the undersigned, as assignee of the purchaser, on October 27, 1969, at the sale ordered in said proceedings which sale was held by the County Collector of said County on the day aforesaid at the Court House in the City of Jacksonville, in the County of Morgan, and State of Illinois, purchased said delinquent land and lots for the taxes, interest, penalties and costs due and unpaid for the year 1968; And that such delinquent lands and lots so purchased are more particularly described as follows:

Parcel No. 1. Part of the Southwest quarter of the Southeast quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section 29 in Township 15 North and Range 10 West of the Third Principal Meridian, described as follows: Beginning at a point 2 chains and 68 links North of the Southeast corner of said quarter quarter section and running thence North 2 chains and 50 links, thence West 5 chains, thence South 2 chains and 50 links and thence East 5 chains to the place of beginning, except a strip of ground 30 feet wide off of the East side of said parcel reserved for a street, County of Morgan, State of Illinois.

Parcel No. 2. Part of the Southeast quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section 29 in Township 15 North and Range 10 West of the Third Principal Meridian, described as follows: Beginning 40 rods West and 20 rods North of the Southwest corner of said Northwest quarter, thence North 4 rods, thence West 20 rods, thence South 4 rods, thence East 20 rods to the place of beginning, containing 1/4 acres, reserving 30 feet off the East end thereof for Street, County of Morgan, State of Illinois.

Such real estate so purchased was last taxed in the name of Myra Wilson Watson. The time for redemption of said real estate will expire on September 11, 1972.

On May 17, 1972, the undersigned filed a petition in the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Illinois in the same proceeding in which the aforesaid judgment and order of sale was entered. Said petition prays that the court enter an order directing the County Clerk to issue a tax deed to the undersigned if the real estate shall not be redeemed from the sale; And the undersigned intends to make an application to the court on September 13, 1972, at the hour of 2 P.M. for an order on said petition that a deed issue to the undersigned if the real estate shall not be redeemed from the sale.

Students, Legislators Debate War Issues

By MICHAEL ROBINSON Associated Press Writer SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) —

Four resolutions urging withdrawal of U.S. forces from the Vietnam war were killed Tuesday in a stormy hearing of the Illinois House Executive Committee.

At the hearing, spectators groaned as it quickly became evident that antiwar sentiment in the legislature has dropped considerably since last year.

The most popular resolution among the 27 members of the committee received only six votes. Similar measures last year resulted in deadlocks, with all Democrats and some Republicans voting in favor of them.

Among the witnesses, the lengthiest testimony came from Richard Chaffee, a Western Illinois University student who led some 500 young people to the steps of the statehouse two weeks ago to protest the mining by the United States of seven North Vietnamese ports.

"I'm against any war ... any killing," Chaffee said. In answer to questions from the members he charged that both U.S. and North Vietnamese leaders are "war criminals" because of their decision not to end the fighting.

As last year, the chief opponent of the measures was House Majority Leader Henry J. Hyde, R-Chicago.

Hyde labeled the testimony of the antiwar students "a little lopsided, a little one-sided, a little masochistic and a little hate America."

"If the American Friends Service Committee had their way," he declared, "the incinerators would still be glowing in Germany."

"What is our response while the President is on the most crucial mission of this era in Moscow?" he asked. "Four crummy resolutions."

Members of the committee burst into applause. With that, the representatives launched a series of denunciations of the resolutions and the witnesses.

"This whole ball of wax makes me want to vomit," Rep. Peter Miller, R-Chicago, said. "I admire that great Democratic President who dropped the hydrogen bomb on Hiroshima. It's kill or be killed."

"I have no sympathy for long hair or soft views," he added. Rep. Joseph Gibbs, R-Springfield, who bolted the Republican position last year to vote against the war, sobbed loudly and tears welled in his eyes as he voted against the resolutions.

"You ought to thank God that you can come before the State of Illinois and we listen to you," he said. "You won't get as 80 per cent of their income for groceries.

Ropp said that Gov. Richard Ogilvie's rural development program was exploring ways to give the farmer "a fair return on his investment." Ropp said this was not the case now since farmers' income is 25 per cent lower than that of non-farm workers in America.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24 — Born today, you have great determination which, coupled with your natural instinct for intuitive thinking, enables you to move ahead on any given project with the kind of confidence that very often results in the wrenching of success from failure, fulfillment from frustration and disappointment. Never one to accept the poor state of any endeavor as the "last word," you take hold even of the falling situation and, nine times out of ten, are able to inject it with new life, new possibilities.

You will have to take care, however, that the firmness of mind you exhibit in the face of impending failure—that firmness which enables you to rescue a given project, to snatch victory from defeat—does not deteriorate into a kind of stubbornness that misleads you into sticking with a project even beyond the possibility of any success with it. Learn when enough is enough and be willing to relax your efforts when that point is reached.

A difficult taskmaster both in your personal and your professional life, you may at times antagonize those close to you with your insistence on a "best" performance from everyone concerned, whether the ultimate goal of the activity be important or not. There are things one does purely for fun, willy-nilly, in any slap-dash fashion. Learn to allow these things their haphazard character.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Thursday, May 25
GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Apply the brakes to your expansive mood before you find that you've given away more of yourself and your possessions than you can afford.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Self-control is the key to solving the day's problems. Remain sensitive to the feelings of others — but keep your own feelings uppermost.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — You can improve the general mood of all your associates today if you will smile and spread cheer. Don't keep good news to yourself.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Minor morning upset must not be held responsible should you fail to meet the challenge of the afternoon successfully. The two things are not connected.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Take care that you do not delude yourself. All things are neither as you think they are nor as you would have them. Know what is real.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Ideas which come late to your mind at this time are perhaps the best you've had in months. Consider them carefully; discuss them with a good friend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Though you may be in no mood for change, this is the day that requires of you great adaptability to the new and different.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) — Allow your personal affections to guide you in your relationships with others. Don't be afraid to let another know the depth of your feelings.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Though surroundings appear stable enough, this may be the day when upheaval makes you change your plans. Inner disturbances may make you fretful.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — You would be wise to set aside your feelings of ill-will against one whom you have disliked for a long time. A day for exercising forgiveness.

ARIES (March 22-April 20) — Faced with something new this morning, you may not know which direction to take. Follow your inclination and all should be well.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — The wise Taurus will not fight against performing his duty to the best of his ability. Consider your strength of character and mind your chief assets.

Souvanna Phouma Has Had It

By TOM TIEDE

VIENTIANE, Laos (NEA)—National saviors have come and gone over the last two turbulent decades of Southeast Asia, but Souvanna Phouma of Laos, like the, uh, Mekong River, has just kept rolling along.

The prince and prime minister holds a rather remarkable endurance record for headman in this part of the globe. Since 1955 he has been chief executive on five separate occasions, for a total of 16 years — the last eight of them in a row.

The reasons for his survival are complicated. Suffice it to say, as Souvanna himself is fond of sighing: "Who else would want the job?"

In any event, the reign may soon be ending. At 73 years old, Souvanna is tired. Sitting on a gold brocade chair in his living room, ticking off the disappointments of his office, the old man says he wants to quit: "I will consider it more seriously after the National Assembly meets (this summer). No one is indispensable."

The statement, a grumble as much as anything, will not likely unleash panic in the streets here. The prince has yearned for and talked much of retirement for years. "Every time things go bad, as they are now," says a U.S. official, "Souvanna looks for the rock."

Yet this time the squat, humorless aristocrat may mean it. Things are not just going bad in Laos, they are going terrible.

There is, first off, the war. Souvanna's control has been whittled down to less than half the nation and barely 65 percent of the three million population. The enemy, including perhaps 60,000 North Vietnamese troops, kill an average of 10 loyalist soldiers a day, can take any town—including Vientiane—almost at will, and are, according to most indicators, the strongest real power in the country.

Then there is the economy. Despite massive amounts of assistance from a multinational economic committee (the United States alone contributes about $17 million a year), the kip is again on the slip. Eighteen years ago the kip was pegged at 35 for the U.S. dollar. Now it is 600 and, according to black market indicators, should be 750. As a result, a piece of pork that last year cost 600 kipp is now up to 800. Rice has jumped by nearly $2 a trading bag. And times are tough. "As a clerk," says one harried citizen, "I earn 10,000 kipp a month ($17). Prices go up but my salary stays the same. I have had to cut back and back on expenses. All I can afford to eat now is bread and water."

Even the United States is contributing to the national woe. In a reverse way. Since congressional investigations blew the whistle on Laos spending two years ago, Souvanna's government is showing its ribs. The U.S. contribution is still hefty—$350 million a year at least—but most of this goes toward the war effort and is blown, quite literally, to hell. The U.S. Agency for International Development spends more than Laos does on social works (USAID's budget is $47 million here, the Laotian budget is $7 million less), but the effects are hardly felt in a country at war, where 80 per cent of the people live out in the sticks, and at least 35 per cent of them are behind the enemy lines.

"It's plain to see," says one newspaper editor here, "Laos is being difficult to subtract from zero. According to the estimates of U.S. government statisticians: the Laos Gross National Product is less than half of one U.S. moon shot; the per capita income is $66; the life expectancy average is 35 years; only two of 10 people can read or write; there is only one physician for every 24,000 people; about 700,000 Laotians are living as refugees; 20 per cent of the males of military age are in the service earning less than 30 cents a day.

Small wonder that Souvanna Phouma wants to chuck the whole mess. He has, say close friends, had it. He has survived unnumbered coups, routine threats to his life, a 10-year physical separation from his French wife (who prefers Paris, oddly, to Vientiane), and the continuing squawks of his subjects. He is drooping. He wants out.

He sits through interviews generally bored. No, the United States is not helping Laos enough. No, he has not asked Mr. Nixon for more money, that is up to the U.S. congress. No, the war is not going well.

Yes, Laos would fall if the United States withdrew.

And, yes, Laos may fall even if the United States stays.

The only time he strings words together enthusiastically is on the subject of his retirement. "I want to write my memoirs," he says. See here. He is almost boyish as he leafs through the pages of a diary. "Every night I write. I have a stack of papers this high."

Then he settles back, grinning, this weary old warhorse ready for pasture.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Loss Of Balance A Symptom Vertigo Is Increasingly Common

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Will you please discuss labyrinthitis? In years back we seldom heard of people being dizzy. Now many people have dizziness.

Dear Reader—I can't speak for either Dale Evans or Jimmy Durante, but it does seem like there are a lot more people with dizziness problems or difficulties in balance (labyrinthitis) than there used to be. It is also called vertigo.

There are many different causes for this problem but they are all related to the balance mechanism. Inside each ear there are three little canals or tubes that are shaped in the form of a half circle. Each one is perpendicular to the other. Thus, they measure the movement of the head in all three dimensions.

These little tubes are much like a carpenter's level and when the fluid in them moves, a signal is sent to the brain to help provide position sense. Moreover, if the canals or the mechanism for transmitting their signal to the brain stops functioning properly, the brain gets misinformation which results in loss of balance or dizziness.

The balance mechanism of the ear is separate from the hearing. Thus, one may have dizziness with or without hearing problems. There are many causes for these problems. One condition is called Meniere's disease named after the doctor who first described it. It consists of the dizziness with intermittent hearing loss and ringing in the ears and not infrequently nausea and vomiting. These attacks are often sudden and last for a few minutes to several hours and then may disappear for quite some time. During the episodes because of the dizziness the individual frequently can't walk. This problem seems to be related to an accumulation of too much fluid in the little balance tubes (the labyrinth).

In other instances the hearing is not affected at all and the episodes of dizziness occur following a viral infection, usually a respiratory type or even gastrointestinal. These may last for several weeks and then diminish and occur infrequently over a few months and eventually disappear. These may be a result of an inflammation of the nerve that connects the small canal to the brain, causing "acute labyrinthitis."

The other common cause is related to changes in circulation. With the presence of atherosclerosis (fatty deposits in the arteries) in our population it is not surprising that the small arteries that provide blood to the little canals can become diseased and when this affects the blood supply to these areas, dizziness and loss of balance become a way of life. This is frequently seen in older people. It is just one more of the unending list of problems that occur from atherosclerosis and further reason for proper habits.

Vertigo or dizziness of course can be caused by other things including excess motion. Some individuals have dizziness as a result of a brain tumor. Also, the affects of drugs should be added to the list. Many of the drugs and some tranquilizers that are used sometimes cause the complication of vertigo and dizziness. Among these drugs is the excessive use of alcohol, tobacco or salicylates (aspirin or aspirin-like medicines).

Please send your questions and comments to Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Lamb cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Assault On Prep Marks Expected

CHARLESTON — Evanston High School will bid for its third straight state track championship in the 1972 prep finals on the Eastern Illinois University track here Friday and Saturday May 26 and 27.

But to score the "hat trick" the Wildcats will have to turn back stiff challenges expected from Chicago Heights, Bloomington, Alton and Glenbard East. Oak Park, LaGrange Lyons and Bloomington are the only other schools which have been able to stack up as many as three titles in a row in modern times, with Bloomington's four-year domination (1956 through 1959) setting the all-time winning streak record.

Action at Eastern's Lincoln Field Stadium will open at 9 a.m. Friday with preliminaries in the pole vault. Prelims in the running events will open at noon Friday on the quarter mile Tartan oval in the 120 yard high hurdles, long jump, discus, high jump and shot put preliminaries will also begin at noon.

Saturday's finals will start at noon in pole vault, discus and high jump competition, and track events will open at 12:30 p.m. with the two-mile run.

The high school finals were moved to Eastern's track this year to avoid a conflict with the Big Ten meet being held at the University of Illinois Memorial Stadium the same weekend.

A wholesale assault on the state prep records is expected to develop from a classy field surviving district meets held Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20. The most vulnerable record appears to be Jan Johnson's 15 ft., 4 in. mark in the pole vault, which is expected to be topped by Urbana's Doug Laz. The Urbana vaulter has soared 15-6 this season to lead prospective record setters. Lebanon's Craig Virgin, one of the nation's premiere junior distance runners, could be a double winner in the two-mile and mile events. In the longer race, Virgin has been pushing the 9 minute mark and should bear down in state competition to equal or better last year's time of 8:57.3, which set a national record in the freshman-sophomore class.

Jim Hanlon of Glenbard East is also a double threat. In pre-district meets he ran near last year's winning time of 14.2 seconds in the 120 high hurdles and is also a state leader in the 180 yard low.

The 100 yard dash record of 9.6 seconds, held by Howard Jones of Evanston, appears to be in jeopardy and could fall to Jones himself. Barring upsets in district competition, Mike Monroe of East St. Louis Lincoln, one of last year's finalists, and Bo Scott of Alton are expected to be contenders.

In the other sprint event, the 220 yard dash, Ken Paulson of Elmhurst York has turned in a time of 21 seconds flat, which is also below the state standard. Mattson's Don Hudson is also nearing the 21-second mark and should be a challenger.

Bill Edwards of Homer is expected to dominate the discus throw if he is up to form. Edwards has hurled the disc more than 170 feet this season, which is more than a yard past last year's winning distance. Rich Girt of East Moline is nearing the 62-foot mark in the shot put, which could be good enough to win in the finals. Girt was also a finalist in 1971.

The 1972 event will mark the first time in the 78-year history of the track finals that the meet has been held at a site other than the University of Illinois.

Bird Errors Let Pirates Win 6-2

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates capitalized on St. Louis errors for a pair of three-run innings and beat the Cardinals 6-2 Tuesday night for their eighth consecutive victory.

St. Louis shortstop Ed Crosby opened the gates in the second inning by booting Manny Sanguillen's potential double play grounder, after which Pittsburgh pushed across runs on singles by Gene Alley, Dave Cash and Vic Davallilo.

Two innings later, winning pitcher Steve Blass, 5-1, and Cash scored when both second baseman Ted Sizemore and right fielder Luis Melendez booted a Davallilo bounce.

Roberto Clemente singled home the final run-off loser Reggie Cleveland, 4-3.

St. Louis scored on Melendez' second home run of the season in the second inning, giving Phil Niekro and the Atlanta Braves a 2-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds Tuesday night.

Niekro, 6-4, aided his cause with the sixth home run of his career in the third, offsetting a first-inning run by Cincinnati.

The Reds scored when Pete Rose led off with a triple and came home on Joe Morgan's single. Niekro allowed only four more hits.

McGlothin, taking over from Ross Grimsley in the eighth, was touched for three straight hits with one out. Dusty Baker started the winning rally with his third hit of the game, moved to second on Darrell Evans' single and scored on Perez' double.

But the Expos came right back as Boots Day singled with one out and Jorgensen socked his fifth homer of the year.

Philadelphia tied the game at 2-2 when a throwing error by Bailey on an infield hit by Deron Johnson permitted Greg Luzinski to score.

Fairly put the Expos ahead 3-2 in the bottom of fifth and knocked Dick Selma, 1-5, out of the game.

Hector Torres, who started at shortstop in place of the suspended Tim Lincecum, led off with a triple and scored on Selma's second wild pitch of the game.

Bill Stoneman, 4-4, walked and eventually scored on Jorgensen's single. Jorgensen then stole second and came in on Fairly's single.

Cubs' 2-1 Victory Stops Met Streak

CHICAGO (AP) — Paul Popovich's run-scoring double in the eighth inning broke a tie and gave the Chicago Cubs a 2-1 victory over New York Tuesday, snapping the Mets' 11-game winning streak.

Popovich's decisive hit off losing reliever Tug McGraw, 2-1, scored Carmen Fanzone, who had singled with one out in the eighth.

The Mets had tied the score 1-1 in the seventh on a walk to Bud Harrelson, Ken Boswell's sacrifice and consecutive singles by Tommie Agee and Rusty Staub.

Staub had four of the six hits off Ferguson Jenkins, 4-4.

The Cubs had nicked Mets' starter Gary Gentry for a run in the fourth on a walk to Jim Hickman and singles by Popovich and Ken Rudolph.

It was the Mets' first loss since May 11.

Players, Owners At It Once More

NEW YORK (AP) — Organized baseball and the Major League Players Association scheduled a game rained out April 19 against the New York Mets for a day-night doubleheader on July 1. When the Mets had their game against Los Angeles rained out May 9, they quickly rescheduled it as a double admission, day-nighter two days later.

"The basic agreement says a split doubleheader may be scheduled only when there is no practicable alternative to doing so bearing in mind the nature of the pennant race, seating capacity of the park and tradition of split doubleheaders in the city involved," said Miller.

"There had been no split doubleheaders in the National League in the last four years," said Miller; "none in New York and none in Montreal. This is an outrageous example of ignoring a contractual agreement."

More important than the individual case of the Expos is a general trend, according to Miller, of baseball violating or ignoring its basic agreement with the Players Association. There was the matter of the Boston Red Sox being required to play three games in three different cities in three days last week.

"That's another example," said Miller. "The contract says one day stands will not be rescheduled except to complete the championship schedule. We are filing a grievance."

The Players Association grievance over the Red Sox affair and the split doubleheader matter, if Feeney, Gaherin and Miller are unable to work it out Wednesday, will go to Lewis Gill of Philadelphia, president of the National Academy of Arbitrators and permanent arbitrator in baseball's labor affairs.

Gill's decision is final and binding on both parties but there is no penalty provision in the current basic agreement covering violations.

"That is something we are going to have to take a long, hard look at when we sit down to renegotiate it," said Miller.

Two days after qualifying, however, Pollard had the car up to 184 m.p.h. in a practice session when a wheel hub suddenly gave way, carrying him into the third turn wall. Pollard remains hospitalized with a broken leg. The car was demolished.

The car is in process of being completely rebuilt, and Dallenbach said he will get his first chance to drive it in carburetion runs Wednesday.

It will be the final chance for drivers to get their machines on the 2.5 mile oval. The three-hour period is used by the men behind the cars to check fuel consumption and tire wear.

Most observers feel that fuel use, along with engine livability, will be critical this year. That's because of the tremendous jump in lap speeds—from Peter Revson's four-lap pole record of 178.886 m.p.h. in 1971 to Bobby Unser's 195.940 in this year.

Beardstown's Bill Ingle qualified with a second in the 190 yard dash with a 10.3 clocking and came in third in the long year. That's because of the tremendous jump in lap speeds—from Peter Revson's four-lap pole record of 178.886 m.p.h. in 1971 to Bobby Unser's 195.940 in this year.

Beardstown finished third behind Quincy and Galesburg in the team standings.

Dallenbach Gets Chance After All

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Wally Dallenbach, a 36-year-old veteran driver from East Brunswick, N. J., will get a chance to compete in the 500-mile race after all.

Dallenbach, who was bumped from his position among the 33 starters by ex-stock car ace Cale Yarborough in last gasp qualifying Sunday, was named Tuesday to replace the injured Art Pollard in Andy Granatelli's STP-Lola.

The car will line up for Saturday's noon EDT start in 33rd position.

"It is going to be ticklish situation for a while, and I'll have to be careful for a few laps," said Dallenbach. He will be in the lineup for the fifth time.

"After all," he added, "I can only improve from where I'm starting."

Pollard, 45, of Medford, Ore., originally had placed the new British-made Lola in 10th position at a four-lap speed of 181.626 miles per hour.

Two days after qualifying, however, Pollard had the car up to 184 m.p.h. in a practice session when a wheel hub suddenly gave way, carrying him into the third turn wall. Pollard remains hospitalized with a broken leg. The car was demolished.

Seward Breaks District Record

BEARDSTOWN—Tom Seward broke the District record at the Beardstown highlight in last Friday's Galesburg District track action. Seward, the area leader in both shot put and discus, fired the discus 167' to win the event and snap the previous mark of 150' by Kent Drawve of Rushville last year.

Seward also qualified for the state meet in the shot put with a second place on an effort of 50'8".

Beardstown's Bill Ingle qualified with a second in the 190 yard dash with a 10.3 clocking and came in third in the long year. That's because of the tremendous jump in lap speeds—from Peter Revson's four-lap pole record of 178.886 m.p.h. in 1971 to Bobby Unser's 195.940 in this year.

Stander Boasting Before Title Tilt

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Ron Stander said Tuesday he has a 50-50 chance of taking Joe Frazier's world heavyweight championship. He also proved he's already a champion of the put-on.

Stander engaged in some verbal give-and-take with sports writers before going through a light workout for his scheduled 15-rounder against Frazier Thursday night in Omaha Civic Auditorium.

About his nickname, "The Bluffs Butcher," Stander, who lives in neighboring Council Bluffs, Iowa, said, "They had to come up with something. It was probably a tossup between better and butcher."

Commenting on the 241 pounds he weighed for his last fight, against Mike Boswell, Stander, a beer drinker of some note, said, "I had a really bad cold right before the Boswell fight and I had to drink a lot of tea."

On the matter of his purse, he said, "I'm getting 20 per cent of the live gate and I'm getting 50 per cent of the foreign television money or $100, whichever is greater."

Frazier, who concluded his serious training Monday, is getting $150,000 from television and 40 per cent of the live gate after taxes for the fight which is scheduled to start at 10:25 p.m., EDT.

The fight will be seen on home television, beginning at 10 p.m., on a TVS Television Network hookup of more than 150 stations and will be beamed to other countries.

The 27-year-old Stander has 23 victories with 15 knockouts, one loss and one draw as a pro and has built a solid following in this area.

Frazier remained the 10-1 favorite to win his unbeaten record to 29-0. In his first 28 fights, he won 24 by knockout.

Big Ten TV Basketball Goes To HSN

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Big Ten Commissioner Wayne Duke announced Tuesday that the conference has entered into a two-year contract with the Hughes Sports Network for televising Big Ten basketball next season.

Duke, speaking to newsmen during the Big Ten's spring meeting, said the format for the television coverage has yet to be determined but said he was hopeful of instituting several innovations.

Among them, he said, would be the televising of three wild card games at the end of the schedule and improved half-time shows. He disclosed no price for the deal.

Duke said that most of the meeting between Big Ten athletic directors was spent discussing various coaches' recommendations. None were acted upon, he added.

Part of the discussions, he said, centered around the possibility of having competition in eastern and western divisions in some sports to help lower travel costs.

Steve Hawes, 6-foot-9 University of Washington center, hopes to play pro basketball next season.

The Stander fight will be Frazier's fourth defense since he became champion by stopping Jimmy Ellis in five rounds in February, 1970. His other defenses were a two-round knockout of light heavyweight champion Bob Foster, a unanimous 15-round decision over Muhammad Ali and a four-round knockout of Terry Daniels.

Liston Boss Admits To Irregularity

WASHINGTON (AP) — A part-owner of former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston told a house committee Tuesday that he shared in making a $100,000 payment that later was linked to alleged bribes of New York State political leaders.

John Nilon, whose firm runs concessions at various sports facilities including Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, testified before the House Select Committee on Crime.

Nilon said he and his two brothers gave $100,000 to a group headed by John P. McGuire in exchange for the concession rights at Finger Lakes Race Track, Canandaigua, N.Y.

Later, he testified, the money was returned when it appeared the track would not be opened because of inadequate financing.

Under questioning, Nilon said he finally paid nearly $100,000 for the concession rights, operating the food and beverage concessions at a profit for four years. He then sold out to Sportservice Inc. for $400,000.

Morris Gold, an associate of McGuire's, said he gave the original $100,000 to Hyman E. "Bucky" Mintz, a former New York assemblyman from Sullivan County. Mintz later was convicted of conspiracy to bribe a police officer in a separate incident.

According to Gold, Mintz was to use the money "for political contributions" to both parties. It was returned to Nilon, Gold said, at the demand of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

The Nilons sold out of their money-making concession business at Finger Lakes because of pressure, the committee was told.

In order to stay in business, the track borrowed from Sportservice, Nilon said. Sportservice, a concession subsidiary of Empire Corp. of Buffalo, N.Y., is a competitor of Nilon's.

"Legally, they couldn't take over," Nilon said, "but by owning the track, they could have made life miserable."

Earlier Tuesday, the committee was told some 22 missing winning tickets, worth $10,000, could be the key to an alleged betting scandal and near riot at Yonkers Raceway last June.

Daniel P. Holman said he investigated the New York track after several hundred fans protested violent when an exacta paid only $42 instead of an expected $150.

"They knew they had been had," said Holman, former chief of the New York Joint Strike Force against organized crime. The tote board, Holman testified, showed the winner, Moonstone Bay, went off at 13-1 odds while Mr. Ace, who finished second was five to one.

"The only odds on the tote board is conventional betting," Holman said. "At that time, exacta betting where you pick the first two horses in the race was not shown in the odds."

His investigation, Holman told the committee, which is attempting to find links between organized crime and sports, showed an abnormal amount of winning exacta tickets were purchased by two groups of race horse owners and trainers.

"Of 170 winning $20 tickets," Holman said, "65 were purchased by Frank Poppinger, 20 by Peter Prater and 22 are still uncashed. Of the 170 winning tickets, 117 came from the paddock area."

Trio Of Homers Powers Houston By Padres 7-0

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Tom Griffin, Bob Watson and Doug Rader clouted home runs and Griffin hurled a three-hitter to lead the Houston Astros to a 7-0 victory over the San Diego Padres Tuesday in the first game of a two-night doubleheader.

Clay Kirby, 3-4, gave up the first six runs, including bases-empty homers by Griffin and Watson, plus a three-run homer by Rader. Tommy Helms singled home one of the Houston runs and Roger Metcalf drove in another with a sacrifice fly.

Griffin, 1-0, making his first start of the season, walked two, struck out five and allowed only two runners to advance as far as second base. It was the third victory in a row for the Astros.

Governor Issues Proclamation On Annual Golf Day

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. — National Golf Day activities are underway and among the many supporters is Governor Ogilvie who has issued an official proclamation on behalf of the sport's great philanthropic project.

Proceeds from National Golf Day are disbursed annually among various caddy scholarship, educational and research funds and golf-related charities. This year, as a result of the 1971 competition, $145,000 were disbursed, bringing the total since 1952 to over $1.7 million.

Climaxing the four-week program will be the annual Round of Champions May 30 at Canterbury Golf Club in Cleveland. This year, PGA Champion Jack Nicklaus and U. S. Open King Lee Trevino will establish the target score for men, while the goal for the nation's lady amateurs will be set by Kathy Whitworth, Ladies PGA Champion and Jo Anne Carner, USGA Women's Open Champion.

Amateurs will use their established handicaps or the Callaway System in trying to beat the champions. All those who enter and contribute at least $1 receive an attractive bag tag and winners will be awarded a second tag that will make a striking combination.

In proclaiming Tuesday, May 30 as Golf Day in Illinois, Governor Ogilvie urged "all golfers of our state to co-operate in this worthwhile venture by playing a round of golf, thereby contributing to the many deserving charities and projects associated with this great game."

LONGBOAT KEY, Fla. (AP) — Golf pro Joe Mann of the Longboat Key Golf Club says his course off the Sarasota mainland had to be one of the busiest in the last few months. The club has 600 members and 400 daily players.

Mann, who came from York, Pa., in 1961, formerly worked under pro Leo O'Grady at the old PGA National course in Dunedin, Fla. He is in his third year at Longboat Key, a course built 10 years ago and on which water comes into play on 17 of the 18 holes.

Jabbar On Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Lanier of the Detroit Pistons was named Tuesday to replace Milwaukee's Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the National Basketball Association's Most Valuable Player, on the NBA's All-Star squad for Thursday night's game against the American Basketball Association.

The 6-foot-11 Lanier, winner of the NBA's first One-on-One Tournament during the 1971-72 season, averaged 25.7 points per game, tops on the Pistons, but well below Jabbar's 34.8 figure, best in the league for the second consecutive year.

This is the second year in a row that the 7-2 Jabbar pulled out of the post-season clash between the rival leagues. Last year, he did it to get married. This year, no explanation was given for his defection.

"He just changed his mind," said Larry Fleisher, counsel for the NBA Players' Association. "He alluded to the fact that the owners sent out letters to those participating in the game that they would not be responsible if the players were injured."

"I don't know if that was his reason," said Fleisher at a news conference. "But that's what he said."

Fleisher said that Jack Dolph, commissioner of the five-year-old ABA, had approved the game, but he had not heard from Walter Kennedy, commissioner of the older and more established NBA.

The game is being presented by the players' associations of both leagues, and the respective teams were chosen by the votes of players in both the NBA and ABA.

Besides Lanier, the NBA added Little Nate Archibald of Cincinnati to its 11-man squad. The 6-1 Archibald was second in the league in scoring with a 28.2 average and third in assists with a 9.2 mark.

The game will be played at the Nassau Coliseum in Uniondale, N.Y., the new home of the New York Nets, and will be nationally televised by more than 150 stations, starting at 7:30 p.m., EDT.

The NBA won last year's initial game 124-120.

Perry Wins 8th As Tribe Breezes 3-0
NEW YORK (AP) — Cleveland's Gaylord Perry outdueled New York's Mel Stottlemyre 3-0 Tuesday night, limiting the Yankees to four singles and igniting a three-run uprising that broke a scoreless tie in the eighth inning with a double.

It was the sixth consecutive victory for Perry, 32, while Stottlemyre, 44, had his four-game winning streak come to an end along with New York's three-game skid.

Perry's double to right-center was only the fourth hit off Stottlemyre, who had pitched two straight shutouts. He moved to third on Del Unser's sacrifice and raced home when a pitch to Eddie Leon was in the dirt and bounced away from catcher Thurman Munson.

With two out and Leon aboard via a single, Stottlemyre walked Graig Nettles and Tom McCraw, loading the bases. Ray Rosse, who struck out in the same situation in the fourth inning, then singled for two more runs.

Edith Kemp of Miami is the only woman besides the late Helen Sobel Smith to have won both the Vanderbilt and Spingold cups. She is a top teacher. Here is one of her hands for advanced pupils.

The first problem is to get to four spades. The second is to make it.

He starts proceedings by ducking the first club and notes that East has dropped the deuce. It looks as if clubs will break 4-3. He wins the club continuation and makes the second key play which is a low trump.

It doesn't matter what the defense does from now on. South will be able to gain the lead and cash his ace of trumps. Then he can do almost anything except lead a third trump. Sometime or other, West will score a trick with his remaining trump, but that will be all.

Don't Be Greedy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Don't meddle with black market money when traveling. The Air Transport Association advised U.S. citizens traveling abroad to stick to the official rate on foreign money exchange. The association warns that trading money on the black market is a serious offense in many countries—and there also is a danger of being stuck with counterfeit.

UNIQUE SERUM BANK
BALTIMORE (AP)—A new program to aid children for whom chicken pox could be fatal has been unveiled by Dr. Neil Solomon, Maryland's secretary of health.

Solomon said a special serum bank, first of its kind in the nation, would be established for children who are especially threatened by the illness.

"Chicken pox can be deadly for children who have to take certain drugs to combat arthritis, kidney disease, leukemia and other forms of cancer," he said.

AREA METHODIST WSCS MEETINGS

The WSCS of Lynville United Methodist church met May 10th at the home of Mrs. Grace Killam with Mrs. Dorothy Ranson assisting. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Edie Metz, who read a poem written by Dr. Dewey Muir. I Cannot Come to Church.

After prayer a lesson from the study book, Women in Ghana, was given by Mrs. Opal Wilson, closing with prayer. In absence of the secretary minutes were read by Mrs. Frances Welsh. The treasurer's report was made by Mrs. Curtis Morris.

Members voted money to provide a blanket for Blanket Sunday, May 21st. The District meeting will be Sept. 16th. There were 57 sick calls reported. A letter was read in regard to changing the WSCS name to UMW, United Methodist Women. The meeting closed with a spiritual life thought from Mrs. Belle Whewell on Take Time.

Miss Helen Hart was surprised with Happy Birthday as the day was her anniversary. Love refreshments were served by hostesses. A contest was conducted during the social hour by Miss Hart and won by Mrs. Frances Welch. Mrs. Dorothy Goehring, mother of Mrs. Metz, was a guest.

The June 14th meeting will be with Mrs. Frances Wedeking, Mrs. Belle Whewell will assist and Mrs. Martha Finch will have the study.

SOME PENNANT

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Derek Sutch stood back and surveyed the result of 18 months of toil—a good-looking 36-foot houseboat.

Just one more thing, he thought, a pennant to fly from the cabin roof.

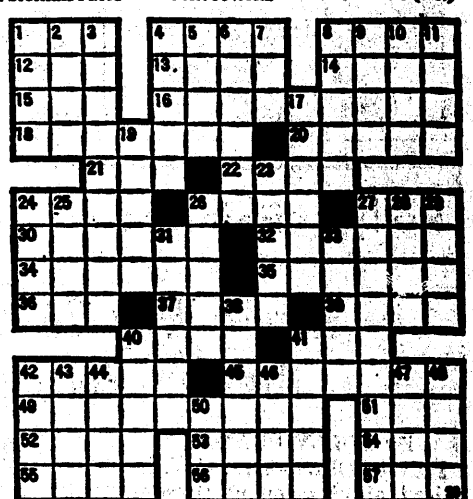

Two weeks later the flag arrived with a $336 bill instead of one for $10. The flag was 12 feet by 24 feet. The flag-maker explained his work team had mistaken Derek's inches for feet.

Here's Way To Clean Dresden Porcelain

By POLLY CRAMER
DEAR POLLY—Mrs. G.W. inquired about cleaning Dresden porcelain so I would like to suggest regular dusting once a week. I own several pieces of genuine Dresden. If they become too dusty, I wash them in hot soapy water, rinse them in hot water just as I do my good china and then let them air dry or carefully dry with a clean kitchen towel without too much rubbing. Mine look sparkling clean after this procedure.—LIESEL

DEAR GIRLS—When washing fine china pieces, use the sink with a heavy bath towel and wash one piece at a time to reduce the chance of chipping. If necessary, use a SOFT brush to get into the crevices. Do not expose such pieces to quick changes in water temperature.—POLLY

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY—My husband is always complaining about his black permanently pressed dungarees. After washing, they always appear to have white streaks or a white cast over them. I would appreciate some hints for a solution to this problem.—DARLENE

DEAR POLLY—As a knitter, my Pet Peeve is with the manufacturers of circular needles that do not have the sizes imprinted or stamped on the needles. This would certainly prevent confusion when one wants to knit with such needles.—MRS. R. A.

DEAR POLLY—After breaking several needle threaders while doing needlepoint, I decided to try a piece of dental floss for pulling the wool through the needle; and it worked just fine. Being the mother of a dentist may have had something to do with my thinking of this.—MRS. A.J.J.

DEAR POLLY—The first few years they were in school my children all took pride in their papers and every one had to be saved and cherished. Having four children, I soon realized that we would need a larger house just to accommodate grade school papers. We solved

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — "Go to college son, get a good education and you'll always have a good job." That counsel has been given to millions of young Americans.

The assumption is made that a good education equals a good white-collar job and security, while a poor education means much less pay in a blue-collar job and a much greater likelihood of unemployment.

Shrewd observers of employment trends now realize that while this is often so, it isn't necessarily so. Blue-collar workers are capable of making "big" money, while some professionals are without jobs.

Moreover, as mobile Americans seek to scramble up the ladder via education, the competition for professional and technical jobs might grow stiffer, perhaps even leaving less competition for more menial jobs.

In the three years from February 1969 to February 1972, according to the Labor Department regional office here, unemployment among professional and technical workers rose far more rapidly than among all workers.

It isn't that the opportunities aren't opening up, it says. The real explanation is that each year there are many more people trained for these jobs, making it possible for employers to be choosy.

The Labor Department cites figures which indicate that during the 1970s some 10.5 million persons will be seeking jobs typically held by college grads. However, the growth of job opportunities for them will total only 10.4 million.

This close balance between supply and demand, it is expected, will probably produce a job market heavily in the favor of employers.

Suppose the applicant is successful. What then is likely to be the determining factor in continued upward mobility or advancement? According to a University of Michigan professor, it could be a stable marriage.

John E. Tropman, social work professor, measured the advancement of 6,000 males between the ages 45 and 54. The men who progressed the furthest, he found, were those who had remained married to their first wives.

The second most successful group was those who had been married. And far behind, he says, were the men who had been divorced, separated or who had become widowers.

Insurance Stocks In The Limelight

By LEROY POPE
UPI Business Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Once again insurance stocks are in the Wall Street limelight.

Both the life company shares and those of fire and casualty companies advanced notably in the first four months of the year. The Alfred M. Best life stock index, which includes multi-line giants such as Aetna, the Travelers and Connecticut General, advanced around 50 points.

Insurance stocks have suffered along with the rest of the market in May but not nearly as much. Therefore, specialists in the field say they are hopeful that resumption of the historical upward spiral of insurance stocks at last has begun.

More Nest Eggs
In spite of their admitted volatility as compared with industrial and utilities, insurance stocks may have made more nest eggs in the past 75 years than any security group, their specialists claim. There are many examples of investments of $5,000 or so in insurance stocks running to $250,000 or $500,000 if held for a dozen years or so.

But the insurance stocks peaked out in 1964 and were rather dormant since then until late in 1971.

For a time in 1969 it looked

The developments came fast after the proponents of the measure, a substitute for President Nixon's revenue-sharing plan, won a narrow technical victory in the House Rules Committee.

Opponents promised an all-out fight if the bill were brought up in the House Wednesday as planned.

The heart of the compromise probably would result in some delay in starting the flow of funds to the state and local governments.

As originally written by the House Ways and Means Committee, the bill would have provided for an automatic flow of funds beginning this year, 5.3 billion for the first payment and increasing by $300 million a year for five years, for a total of almost $30 billion. These would have been distributed to states and local governments under prescribed formulas.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said in an interview he would agree to taking the automatic appropriations feature out of the local-aid bill if the Appropriations Committee worked out a system of advance funding, so the jurisdiction would know well ahead of time how much federal contribution they could budget.

Appropriations Committee George H. Mahon, D-Tex., said this could be done by making an initial appropriation for two years and thereafter appropriating a year in advance.

The House Rules Committee voted 8 to 7 to recommend procedures barring amendments and in effect validating the irregular automatic appropriations feature.

With half an hour after the committee action, Speaker Carl Albert, D-Okl., a supporter of the bill, called a news conference to announce postponement of House consideration until at least the second week in June.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit taking on recent strong gains pushed the stock market into lower ground Tuesday but losses were generally small.

Many investors moved to the sidelines in the absence of stimulating news developments.

Brokers, said, however, that investors continued to view the Moscow summit meeting as constructive and were optimistic about the economic background.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks lost 3.01 points Tuesday closing at 962.30, as 16.41 million shares changed hands. Volume Monday totaled 16.03 million.

Of the 1,760 issues traded on the Big Board, 762 declined, and 649 advanced.

The New York Stock Exchange index of more than 1,300 common stocks closed up .04 at 60.92.

The Associated Press 60-stock average finished the day off 1.0 at 334.0, with industrials down 2.9, utilities off .4, and rails up .7.

On the American Stock Exchange, the price-change index was down .05 to 27.83. Volume of 4.79 million shares compared with Monday's turnover of 4.34 million. Of the 1,207 issues traded, 577 declined and 340 advanced.

Sperry Rand was the most actively traded Big Board issue, closing up 1 1/4 at 40 1/4 on 204,900 shares.

There were 128 blocks of 10,000 shares or more traded on the Big Board, compared with 111 such blocks Monday.

Revenue Sharing Proposals Head For Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP) — Backers of a $5.3-billion bill for states and cities Tuesday moved for a compromise and postponed a House showdown until June.

The developments came fast after the proponents of the measure, a substitute for President Nixon's revenue-sharing plan, won a narrow technical victory in the House Rules Committee.

Opponents promised an all-out fight if the bill were brought up in the House Wednesday as planned.

The heart of the compromise probably would result in some delay in starting the flow of funds to the state and local governments.

As originally written by the House Ways and Means Committee, the bill would have provided for an automatic flow of funds beginning this year, 5.3 billion for the first payment and increasing by $300 million a year for five years, for a total of almost $30 billion. These would have been distributed to states and local governments under prescribed formulas.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said in an interview he would agree to taking the automatic appropriations feature out of the local-aid bill if the Appropriations Committee worked out a system of advance funding, so the jurisdiction would know well ahead of time how much federal contribution they could budget.

Appropriations Committee George H. Mahon, D-Tex., said this could be done by making an initial appropriation for two years and thereafter appropriating a year in advance.

The House Rules Committee voted 8 to 7 to recommend procedures barring amendments and in effect validating the irregular automatic appropriations feature.

With half an hour after the committee action, Speaker Carl Albert, D-Okl., a supporter of the bill, called a news conference to announce postponement of House consideration until at least the second week in June.

WOMAN DIRECTOR
CHICAGO (AP) — The first woman to head Mt. Sinai Hospital Medical Center, Ruth M. Rothstein of Evanston, has been elected executive director of the 53-year-old Chicago institution.

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures came under renewed selling pressure on the Chicago Board of Trade Tuesday.

Soybean oil and meal also were weak but grain futures showed some relative strength.

Iced broilers were down a few points in very light and mostly local trade.

Some of the selling in the soybean complex appeared to be a carryover from the previous session. Bean prices dipped nearly 5 cents Monday and it was thought that the government's meal stocks figure—a prime factor in the previous selloff—again was a strong selling consideration.

Soybeans declined nearly 1 1/4 cents, mainly in nearby options. Meal was down some 50 cents a ton, and oil around 10 points.

There were reports from the country that, while the winter wheat harvest was expanding, movement of grain from farms into commercial channels was slow.

This influenced buyers and some short-covering was noted as prices moved ahead nearly 1 cent.

Commercial selling in the corn pit was easily absorbed by local speculators, but there appeared to be no sustained move in either direction.

Trade was light in the corn pit as well as in the oats pit with the price fairly tight.

After about an hour, soybeans were 1/4 to 1 cent a bushel lower, July 3.54 1/4; wheat was 1/4 to 3/4 higher, July 1.45 1/4; corn was unchanged to 1/4 higher, July 1.27 and oats were unchanged to 1/4 lower, July 69 1/2 cents.

Education Bill

Maneuvering

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Tuesday rejected an attempt to send the $21.3-billion higher-education bill back to Senate-House conferees with instructions to accept stringent House antibusing provisions.

The lopsided vote against the move by Sen. Robert P. Griffin, D-Mich., indicated that the Senate will pass the compromise version of the legislation when it votes at 3:30 p.m. EDT Wednesday. The House has not yet voted.

Griffin, the Republican whip, noted that the conferees had accepted only one of the tough House riders aimed at school-busing orders and had watered down the other two.

Griffin, supported by Southern senators, said he wanted the Senate conferees to capitulate and take all three of the House provisions.

However, Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., declared that Griffin's move could kill the entire higher-education package. He moved to table and thus kill Griffin's motion, and this was adopted on a 44-26 vote.

The bill contains a new system of student assistance designed to assure every needy high-school graduate in the nation a chance at a college education.

In addition, it would establish for the first time a program of general federal grants to aid all of the U.S. public and private last week, members estimated the total cost of the measure at $13.5 billion over four years. But the official report, filed Tuesday, showed the total to be $21.3 billion.

The anti-busing House rider accepted by the conferees would prevent any court busing orders from taking effect over the next 19 months until all appeals had been exhausted.

The other two riders which were softened would have barred use of any federal funds for busing to desegregate a school and would have directed federal officials not to require or induce a school district to use state or local funds for that purpose.

Fingerprinting is regarded as the only foolproof system of identification.

Dr. E. C. Bone Heads 4 Illinois College Alums To Be Honored

Four alumni of Illinois College, including Dr. Ernst C. Bone, Jacksonville physician and surgeon, have been selected to receive citations for "Distinguished Public Service" as part of the college's annual commencement week activities. The awards will be given during the annual alumni luncheon at noon, Sunday, May 28, in Baxter Hall on the campus.

Dr. Bone was graduated with the class of 1936. Others to be honored are Dr. Rufus C. Browning, class of 1940, dean of education, Montgomery College, Rockville, Md.; Mrs. Dorothy Marsh Clevenger, class of 1942, housewife and civic worker, Pekin; and Willard F. Ice, class of 1937, supervisor of rules and regulations for the Illinois Department of Revenue, Springfield.

A committee composed of alumni, faculty, and administrative staff of the college selected the four for meritorious service to Illinois College, distinguished service to their respective communities, outstanding service to humanitarian and charitable causes, for contribution to intellectual life, and for distinguished service to the nation or state.

Alumni from this area who wish to attend the luncheon may make reservations by calling the College Alumni Office, 245-7126, ext. 240.

Dr. Ernst C. Bone
Dr. Ernst C. Bone was installed in April, 1971, as president of the Illinois Academy of General Practice. A former high school teacher at Petersburg and director of admissions at Illinois College, he received the M.D. degree from the University of Illinois in 1946 and has practiced in Jacksonville and as a medical officer with the United States Navy, 1951-53. He is and has been active in many civic and charitable organizations and served for eight years as a member of the board of School District 117, Jacksonville, and for six years as an alumni trustee of Illinois College. He also has long service as an Elder in the Presbyterian Church. As an undergraduate, he was a member of Sigma Pi Literary Society and participated in basketball and baseball.

Dr. Rufus C. Browning
Recently named dean of education at Montgomery College, Dr. Rufus C. Browning previously had served as assistant to the president. Before joining the college staff, he had been personnel assistant to the superintendent of District of Columbia public schools and had also served the Montgomery, Md., public schools in various capacities. He was with the Headquarters, Department of the Army, Washington, from 1951-60 and the Colorado State Civil Service Commission, 1947-51. He

Adequate Signatures Collected For Vote

Citizens for Better Jacksonville Government met Monday evening for the purpose of collecting and counting petitions and signatures circulated on the question of adopting the managerial form of government in the City of Jacksonville.

Lee Roy Jackson, Jr., chairman of the citizen group, said Tuesday that adequate signatures from Jacksonville voters have been collected and arrangements are now being made to file the petitions with the circuit court as soon as possible.

After the petitions are filed and the court sets a date for a city-wide referendum, Jackson said plans would be made for a public information meeting to be held as soon as possible.

Pick Of Scott Jr. Clubwomen

By Mrs. James Cox
(Winchester Correspondent)
(Telephone 742-3817 or 742-5566)
WINCHESTER — The final meeting of the year for the Winchester Federated Junior Woman's club was held May 18 at Slagle's Ranch Inn with a 6:30 p.m. supper.

President Mrs. Charles Marshall called the meeting to order and led members in the pledge to the flag and the club collect.

Thank you notes were read from Girl Scout Troop 49 and the Koster Expedition. Yearly reports were given by the following standing committee chairmen: program, Mrs. Richard Taylor; ways and means, Mrs. Don Kilver; social, Mrs. Gene Wear; membership, Mrs. Art Newton; publicity, Mrs. Cory Hubbert and Mrs. Burl Fargo; and auditing and budgeting, Mrs. Wayne Kilver.

Mrs. Gene Wear, in behalf of the club, presented a gift to Mrs. Raymond Slagle in appreciation for her services the past year. A scrapbook of the club's activities for the past year was presented to Mrs. Charles Marshall by Mrs. Cory Hubbert and Mrs. Burl Fargo.

Mrs. Marshall presented awards for perfect attendance to the following: Mrs. Henry Likes, Mrs. Cory Hubbert, Mrs. Burl Fargo, Mrs. Pete Lackey, and Mrs. Art Newton.

Each year the club secretly selects an outstanding Junior Clubwoman of the Year. This year's choice was Mrs. Henry Likes.

Awards presented to the club during the year were announced by Mrs. Marshall: Award of Excellence for Outstanding Achievement in the Area of Health; Citation of Achievement for Community Improvement Program 1970-72; Citation for being 100 per cent Club and being 100 per cent subscribed to Illinois Clubwoman 1971-72; Citation for Columbia Care Nutrition Center; Certificate of Appreciation for Retarded Children; Anniversary Scroll - 15 years of club work; Certificate of Appreciation for significant service to the Human Factor in the GFWC - Care World Environment Program.

During the evening, Brownie Scout Troop 20 presented a puppet show entitled The Three Little Pigs. Leader of the Troop is Mrs. Ronald Slagle. Also on the evening's program was Mrs. Dorance Brucker, 20th District junior director, who gave a talk on club work and unity.

Mrs. Brucker served as installing officer for the incoming officers for the year in an impressive candlelight ceremony. Installed were: president, Mrs. Don Smith; 1st vice president, Mrs. Russell Brown; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Don Kilver; recording secretary, Mrs. Burl Fargo; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Cory Hubbert and treasurer, Mrs. Art Newton.

The new president, Mrs. Don Smith, presented Mrs. Charles Marshall, retiring president, with the past president's pin.

Standing committees for the new year were announced: program, Mrs. Russell Brown; ways and means, Mrs. Richard Taylor and Mrs. Roland Todd; social, Mrs. Henry Likes; auditing and budgeting, Mrs. Henry Likes; membership, Mrs. Gene Wear; revisions, Mrs. Dayle Devening; publicity, Mrs. Dayle Devening; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Joe Dolen and telephone committee, Mrs. Joe Dolen.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Henry Likes and Mrs. Wayne Kilver.

EK of PEO Meets
The last regular meeting of Chapter EK of PEO was held May 20 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Burl Merriman.

President Mrs. Wayne Bruns was in charge of the business meeting. The program, Happy Talk, was given by Mrs. Paul Lehman.

Nursing Home Items
A profit of $122.00 was made from the bake and craft sale held at the Scott County Nursing Center open house recently. This amount will help to buy the flower planters and flowers to pretty up the patio.

Two lawn chairs and the bird bath were painted this week by Louise Dunham, Eva Jo McLaughlin and Wayne Steelman.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Taylor of the First Baptist church led the Sunday school class teaching Sunday.

Each woman was given a small artificial corsage in honor of Mother's Day. Rev. Carter of the Manchester Baptist church held the Thursday afternoon church services. Mrs. Wilda Graham served as accompanist for the hymn sing.

Thursday evening, George and Doug Myers presented a movie in behalf of the Winchester Winners 4-H club. Floral arrangements have been received in memory of Margaret Towell, Eddie Graham and Lucille Black.

Woman Injured In Bike Crash Tuesday

A young Jacksonville woman was injured Tuesday about 8:25 p.m. when she fell from her bicycle in the 500 block of Lincoln Ave., according to city policemen.

Debby Smith, daughter of Earl Smith, whose address was not available, was listed in "satisfactory" condition at Passavant hospital Tuesday night.

Policemen said Miss Smith was riding with a group of cyclists when she fell to the pavement, striking her head.

Car Accident Injures One Near Meredosia

A 16-year-old Meredosia resident was injured Tuesday night when the car in which she was riding ran off a county road about two miles south of Meredosia.

Jackie Hughes, 16, was taken to Passavant Memorial Area hospital by the Meredosia Rescue Squad where she was listed in "satisfactory" condition Tuesday night.

Investigating state police said Miss Hughes was riding in an auto driven by Allen Buhlig, 18, of Bluffs. Buhlig told police he lost control of his auto when he swerved to avoid a rabbit running across the road.

His car then struck a culvert. No tickets were issued pending completion of the investigation.

JAMES D. NOWLAN, Republican candidate for Lt. Governor, was the featured speaker Tuesday evening before a crowd of some 300 Republicans gathered at MacMurray Cabin. The family potluck dinner was sponsored by the Republican Central Committee and Woman's Republican Club. Nowlan is presently a state representative from rural Stark County and was selected as a running mate of Governor Richard Ogilvie. At top, Nowlan addressed the crowd in shirtsleeves. Below, left, he talked with members of the radio media downtown before the meeting. At right, he accepts help with the iced tea. Nowlan told the gathering that he would add strength to the Republican ticket with his knowledge of downstate communities and their problems. He touched on some of the major accomplishments of the Ogilvie administration, such as increased highway building, aid to education, parks and recreation and what he described as other "people needs."

A. C. (Junie) Bartulis, candidate for state senator, Clyde Boulos of Bluffs and Thomas C. Rose of Jacksonville, candidates for state representative, along with all county candidates were introduced during the evening. County Chairman Harris Rowe served as master of ceremonies for the evening.

Centennial Farmers Honored By Ropp

Gordon L. Ropp, director of the state Department of Agriculture, spoke to about 150 farmers and members of their families gathered at the Holiday Inn last night. The occasion was the honoring of those farmers whose land has been in the same family for 100 years or longer.

Signs and certificates were presented to 58 farmers from the Jacksonville area at Tuesday's banquet. Glen Spencer, president of the Jacksonville Production Credit Association which co-sponsored the meeting, said there were at least 95 such farms in Morgan County alone.

Before presenting the certificates, Ropp lauded the Illinois farmer and his ancestors whose "pioneering vision and sense of adventure" brought him to this area.

Ropp said his German ancestors were such people. They landed in Ohio with only 50 cents and promptly had to spend half of that for the delivery of a child, he said.

"There is much to be thankful for in this country," Ropp said. "It behooves each and every one of us to make our voices loud and clear that there is much to be proud of in this country."

Ropp noted that while many were challenging the status quo, farmers such as those he was addressing were pillars of stability with "an ability to produce unmatched in the world."

Ropp absolved the farmer from blame for higher food prices noting, "No one has ever said in the last 20 years the farmer's income has gone up only 6 per cent" while the retailer's income has risen over 30 per cent and the wholesaler's over 20 per cent.

Praising agriculture as "the most efficient industry in the country," Ropp declared, "That heritage which is typically known to be American... is to be continued."

Noting that "Food is all important," Ropp claimed the average American family spends only 15 per cent of its income on food while those in other countries may spend as much

For Creek Pollution

The City of Jacksonville Tuesday was fined $1,000 for pollution which the Pollution Control Board said "contributed to the utter destruction" of Mauvasterre Creek, the Associated Press reported yesterday.

The city was also ordered to create a plan to clean up the creek.

Ted Rammelkamp, who has served as the city's attorney in dealing with the Pollution Control Board and the Environmental Protection Agency, said Tuesday night the action taken by the board was "severe."

Rammelkamp, along with consulting engineer Don Houser, utilities superintendent Robert Jameson and water committee chairman Ken Kolberer, met April 28 with officials of the EPA and the attorney general's office.

At that time, they submitted a proposed control order which would require the city to take measures to stop depositing chromium and oil from the light plant and lime from the water plant into the creek.

Presently, the light plant contaminants are being put into the city sewage system and stopgap measures are in effect at the water plant, Rammelkamp said.

The permanent solution calls for the city to install an expensive dewatering process to isolate the lime sludge which is then dumped at the sanitary landfill site. The dewatering machinery, as well as sewage plant improvements required by the EPA, would be financed in part by state and federal grants which the city has applied for. The grants, however, have been stalled by Congress' refusal to pass the necessary legislation.

Rammelkamp said, that except for the addition of the fine, the differences between the control order proposed to the EPA last month and the order handed down in Chicago yesterday will not be known until that order is received here.

The EPA ordered the city to stop the lime pollution of the creek last year. At that time, the lagoon used to contain the lime had overflowed into the creek. There was a delay of months until the lagoon was finally cleaned and the lime hauled away.

After a hearing in February, the city raised the dikes around the lagoon to prevent subsequent overflow. But the EPA said that was not a satisfactory long-term solution.

Parochial Package Approved By Senate

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The Illinois Senate Tuesday approved a package of six bills to furnish $30 million in state aid to private and parochial schools.

Sponsored by Sen. Robert Cherry, D-Chicago, the measures are similar to a set of bills approved last year by the General Assembly but overturned by the state Supreme Court.

The key vote signaling the success of the plan was 31-21. The proposals now go to the house.

They would: —Require public schools furnishing textbooks and special services to their pupils to do the same for students in private and parochial schools. Such services include medical aid and guidance counseling.

—Provide money grants to low-income parents to pay tuition for their children at private and parochial schools.

—Create a state educational development board to design experimental programs for both public and private schools.

Both parties split on the issue—although, as in the past, the bulk of the supporters were Democrats and most foes were Republicans.

In a repeat of the emotional debates on the subject that rocked the Senate in previous sessions, opponents assailed the plan as unconstitutional and "a cruel hoax" on the public.

"This is nothing short of sabotage," Sen. Harris Fawell, R-Naperville, declared. Fawell argued that the start of parochial school financing by the state would signal a drop in the quality of public education to the level of public medical care.

"We're in danger of losing the commitment of the great middle class to quality education," he said.

Sen. Hudson Sours, R-Peoria, told the Senate the measures fly in the face of U.S. constitutional provisions separating church and state.

"Let's do our duty," Sours said. "Let's not just placate the multitude."

Although voting against the bulk of the plan, Sen. Richard Newhouse announced that he would support the grants to low-income parents.

Chester Pine Of Baylis Dies

GRIGGSVILLE — Chester C. Pine, 49, of Baylis died at 4:45 p.m. Tuesday at Illini hospital in Pittsfield.

He was born Oct. 2, 1922 at Baylis, son of Alonzo L. and Beattie A. Hunter Pine. Mr. Pine was a member of the Baylis IOOF and Baylis United Brethren church.

He married the former Mary Louise Sanderson. Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Beattie A. Pine of Baylis, and two children, Charles E. of Jacksonville and Mrs. Sharon Rawlins of Beardstown.

The body was taken to the Skinner Funeral Home in Griggsville. Further arrangements are pending.
